Unto the great and noble populace of the Outlands, does your King and Queen greet you.

Crown tournament has come and Our Heirs have been found. A grand huzzah to Alrik, Crown Prince of the Outlands, who fought with great skill and honor. Huzzah as well to his consort, Slaine, Crown Princess of the Outlands. May their upcoming reign be filled with joy and they lead us to victory at Estrella War!

As Estrella approaches, we look to Our Rapier General, Don Óengus to lead Our troops upon the light field. Please lend him all the support you can and help us to become victorious. Also, come help celebrate the strength of our light fighters and fight in Our first annual rapier tourney to be fought along side the Outlands prize tourney on Thursday at Estrella.

This month is Queen's Con! Come take a class! Come teach a class! Come to show off your artistic or scientific skills in Queen's Prize! Come help the Outland's camp look more authentic in Queen's Whim. Please see the article later in this Herald for further details. Please come and make this the best year yet!

At Crown Tournament, We tasked The Honorable Lady Ymanya Murray to seek vigil with her peers. At the coronation of Our heirs, We will ask he if she will accept admittance into the Order of the Laurel from Our hands. There will be a vigil held Saturday afternoon at Queen's Con and another one held Friday evening before the coronation of Our heirs. For further information, contact Mistress Bennet Murray.

Seneschal

Unto the Crown, Their Heirs, the Populace and all others who read these letters, excellent and warmest tidings.

I must start with an apology. I have not been doing the job I accepted in a proper fashion. For those who have been frustrated, my sincerest apologies. Mundane life has been anything but mundane.

As such, I have tendered my resignation to their Majesties. It is hoped that a successor can be found by Their Heirs' Coronation. If you are interested in the office, please send a letter to the Crown with a copy to the Heirs and to me. If you wish to know more about the office and how it is currently organized, do feel free to contact me.
I've greatly enjoyed working with the Kings and Queens, the Ruling Nobles, my fabulous deputies, and with the Populace. Things have been remarkably quiet and I pray that continues for my replacement. The issue is, as noted above, a very full work life that has become increasingly busy with another business start-up.

Your Servant,
Count Giovanni

White Stag Principal Herald

The April and May Letters of Acceptance and Return have been issued by Laurel. The results have been posted to the outlands-heralds email list and will be available online at: http://www.sca.org/heraldry/loar/ Of interest in the Cover Letter for the April LoAR are a ruling that Compleat Anachronist #66 (A Welsh Miscellany) will no longer be acceptable for documenting names (it remains suitable for documenting name formation) and a call for successors to the office of Laurel. Of interest in the Cover Letter for the May LoAR are an announcement that the LoARs will be issued solely electronically after the June LoAR and a $1 reduction of fees to Laurel (from the kingdom) to take effect in October of this year. I am considering a reduction of kingdom fees to submitters to match Laurel's and expect to announce that next month. Please feel free to contact me if you have input on this topic. The results have been posted to the outlands-heralds email list and will be available online at: http://www.sca.org/heraldry/loar/

October is the month of Stagscon and I hope to see folks, including heralds, there. Besides learning, there will be the opportunity to meet other heralds around the kingdom and possibly heraldic consultation, heraldic bingo, or other amusements as I can devise them. October also is the beginning of the feast season, which brings with it ... courts. If you wish to have business in someone's court, please let the herald know directly - it's part of their job to keep track of such requests. They may also want some details on your business, even if it's meant to be a surprise, so that they can look for an appropriate time in Court for it. In some cases, your business may not be included - there may simply not be enough time or an appropriate slot for it. You may also consider making your presentation outside of court where you can have a quiet personal moment with the recipient.

Serving Crown and heraldry,
Marie de Blois

Minister of Arts & Sciences

Greetings,

Hope everyone has safe travels to Queen's Con on the 13th. I will be holding an A&S Officers meeting sometime that day for Stags Con side of the event, so please review the schedule for time and place.

A reminder about Estrella A&S categories:

- Tabletop Games—includes games from prior to 1600 AD playable on a table (i.e., excludes lawn and active games such as quayles, tennis, jousting, hunting, &c). A single game may be entered, and this must be complete as far as pieces and accessories. Rules must be provided as part of the entrant's documentation.
- Embroidery in the Style of Opus Anglicanum—includes any finished piece consisting of, or decorated primarily with, embroidery in the "Opus Anglicanum" style(s) used prior to 1600 AD. A single item may be entered. Judging will primarily focus on the embroidery.
- External Footwear—includes any finished pair of shoes, sandals, or other "external" footwear (e.g., pattens or chausses) modeled after those produced prior to 1600 AD. Does not include socks or hosen (i.e., "internal" footwear). A pair of shoes with associated pattens may be entered as a single item.

I want to thank everyone who provided comments about the Kingdom A&S Competition these last few months. Any changes will be announced in the November OH, again, thank you all.

On a sad note, our Northern Kingdom A&S Deputy, Master Grellan, will have stepped down at the end of September. I wanted to personally thank him for all of his work, support and advisement that he has provided the region and myself. Good luck with your future endeavors.

Yours in Service,

Mistress Tana a l'Esprit Fort

Minister of Children

Unto the great populace of the Outlands does Lady Jayne Barber, Kingdom Minister of Children send greetings.

There will be an Outlands Youth Team Meeting at Stags Con, October 13 in Caerthe, for Seneschals, Ministers of Children, Youth Activities Coordinators, parents, youth, youth activities volunteers and everyone else interested in youth activities in the Outlands. We hope that the Seneschal from each local group or their representative will attend this meeting.

There have been a number of policy changes at the Society level regarding minors and youth activities over the last six months. In April, Master Aaron Swiftrunner, Society Seneschal (George Reed, Vice President of Operations, SCA, Inc.) sent two Society memorandums requiring in the future, background checks for some of our youth volunteers and answering some of the most frequently asked questions regarding this new policy. The Board of Directors decision is expected this month on the implementation guidelines and required implementation date (in 2008) for these background checks. On May 19, Master Aaron sent out a policy memorandum, expanding a section of the Society Seneschal's Handbook regarding Guidelines for Minors.

Please note that any Society policy regarding minors applies to all local groups and all SCA participants, regardless of whether the local group has a Minister of Children or not. Thus the new Society policies in April and May apply to all local groups and not just those groups with MOCs. These policies include: 1) required background checks for youth volunteers, 2) requiring two unrelated adults present at all youth activities and 3) the new guidelines for group leaders to follow regarding youth who do not follow event or local group policies. Likewise, if a youth activity is publicized at any point -- including event publicity flyers, event gate books, event websites, newsletters, announcements in court, announcements by a herald, etc.-- that activity has to follow the two unrelated adults present policy and the specific remedies for noncompliance available to and required of SCA officials in charge of events. If you wish a copy of either of these new policies, please contact me at krege@aps.edu.

There were over 150 emails to the Outlands list regarding youth policies in four days in July. If you are not a member of the Outlands discussion list and wish to view the archives of these emails, you can join this free discussion list at http://groups.yahoo.com/group/Outlands/. Those wishing to become a member of the Outlands Youth Team, can join our discussion list at http://groups.yahoo.com/group/OutlandsYouthTeam

In service,

Lady Jayne Barber

Scribe

Unto the Populace of the Outlands, Greetings.

I would like to begin by thanking everyone for the warm welcome I have received during the transition of this office. My most heartfelt thanks go to Mistress Nadrah for the wonderful job she has done as Kingdom Scribe. She has taken great care of the scribes and we all appreciate everything she has done for us.

As the Kingdom Office changes, so too will some of the Deputy positions. I would like to extend my warmest gratitude to Mistress Cailte Caitchairn, who has served the scribes long and well as the New and Special Texts Deputy. She has resigned that position, but remains an amazing resource and a great supporter of the scribes. Lady Brighid Óg inghean Néill has graciously agreed to become the Southern Deputy. Baroness Christina McCarty will continue as our web site coordinator, and I could not be more thrilled. She has done a remarkable job for years, and I so appreciate all her hard work. The Honorable Lady Asta Olafsdottir will also be continuing on as the Northern Deputy. These ladies are all incredible scribes and wonderful resources, and I know the College will continue to bloom with their help.

I encourage everyone to visit the Scribes website at http://scribes.outlands.org. Her Excellency Christina routinely updates the gallery, and there you can see examples of the great work the scribes are doing.

Again, thank you all for your support of the scribes and of the office as we make this transition. I am greatly looking forward to serving the Crown, the Kingdom and the Scribes.

In service,
Ymanya Murray

Rapier Marshall

Unto the Rapier fighters of the Outlands, Greetings! Estrella War is around the corner. Two things relevant to that event.

1 - Don Oengus MacConchobnair is Outlands Rapier General. At the time of this post I do not know the Northern and Central Commanders. That will be communicated by Don Oengus. The Southern Commander is Baron Giovanni di Luca.

2 - Authorizations for war must be completed 30 days prior, the cutoff date will be January 15, 2008. Remember that the best calibration is communication. Talk to your opponents, and not just in bouts. Remember, if you answer the question "are you satisfied?" with a "yes" that ends things. Complaining afterwards makes you a whiner. Get in the habit of this at practice, even though there is not the same formality. What we do in practice is what we do on the field.

In Service,
Christian

Greetings from the Heirs to the Stag Throne

Unto our beloved Father and Mother, Mordygan and Madigan, the Peers of our Kingdom, the Nobility and the populace, Their Royal Highnesses Alrik and Slaine send greetings.

We are really excited to serve the Outlands as Crown. We would like to start by thanking everyone who helped us finish our commitment of autocratting al-Barran Champions. We couldn't have done it without the wonderful volunteers who made our jobs easy.

We would also like to thank Lady Cassandra and all of her staff for a great Crown tournament and feast. The site was spectacular and one we won't soon forget.

Please join us in the Shire of Nahrun Kabirun for Coronation on November 10th; we are sure it will be great.

Lastly, if you have any recommendations for retinue or awards please send them to us at your earliest convenience.

In service to Their Majesties and the Outlands,

Alrik Slaine

Stag's Con

Unto the Officers, Autocrats, and all others who serve the Crown, Kingdom and Populace, good greetings!

Stag's Con is your chance to learn more about your service areas and to learn more about other ways to serve the Kingdom or your local group as well. I hope you can attend. If you are an officer and cannot attend, try to send one of your deputies. If you don't have deputies we'll have a class on that.

The schedule is a bit tentative right now but we are planning on a 9:00 a.m. opening with everyone for an hour and then break outs with each of the major Kingdom Officers. We will be offering classes including on how to be an autocrat, what really happens in Peer Circles (for non-Peers), and a discussion on the roles and responsibilities of the Crown, Ruling Nobles and others.

I look forward to seeing each of you there.

Yours,
Count Giovanni

Sponsor's duties are to aid the entrant in getting their project completed, introducing them to other artisans/mentors who share their interest, assist with documentation, provide a prize for another entrant at the tourney, and be available to consult with other artisans at the tourney. If the artisan cannot attend, it is the sponsor's responsibility to ensure that the entry gets to the site.

Equipment you would find in a Medieval Camp: accessories, tools, furniture, tents, awnings, lanterns, cooking tools, etc. Recreations of items used in period. Documentation is strongly encouraged.

Methods of disguise: Creative methods of disguising our mundane necessities and luxuries. Cooler covers, light shades, snobberies, chair covers, making the mundane look less obvious. When you walk into a camp what reminds you still of the 20th century? Plastic chairs, brightly colored storage boxes, modern lights that glare, coolers etc. can all be disguised, covered or just made to look less modern. Please bring instructions on how you achieved your project so that others can hide things in their encampments as well.

Best Heraldic Display on a Warrior: Persona appropriate or specific garb or clothing that displays the Kingdom colors or ensign. May include incorporation of any personal awards or heraldry. Make something green in the personal style for the fighter, fencer, or archer in your life. These need not be the traditional tabard style. Make something that is cut and sewn in the style that the warrior's persona would have worn under or over their armor. The use of the Stag is encouraged but not necessary and any personal touches relating to the individual's heraldry are welcome.

Banners: Display your arms, your Kingdom's arm's, your local groups arms or any combination thereof. May include any persona specific display. Poles or methods of display strongly encouraged. Show how you are going to display yourself in your encampment. Their Excellencies Carrick and Katherina of Caer Galen invite you to join them as they visit the Sultan of Malwa, Nasir ud Din, in his capital city of Mandu, often called Shadiabad, the City of Joy for a day of exciting events and fabulous food.

The year is 1505 AD, and the city of Mandu is renowned through out India as a place of learning, beauty and art. The famed book Ni'matnama "The Sultan's Book of Delights", has finally been shown to the public. Commissioned by the Sultan's father, Ghiyath ud Din and finished by Sultan Nasir ud Din after his father's death, the book lists many of Ghityath ud Din's favorite foods, scents and advice on living. Come join with Their Excellencies as they sample some of the recipes from the Ni'matnma and enjoy the pleasures of the court of the Sultan.

The court of the Sultan follows the traditions of Islam. Therefore, Her Excellency must have female guards for the occasion, least there be any stain on her honor in the eyes of the court of the Sultan. Therefore, there will be two tournaments, one light, one heavy for female fighters only to choose Her Excellency's guards for the day.

To add to the excitement of the day, the traditional Caer Galen Midwinter activities will be held. There will be a tournament to allow Their Excellencies to choose the new Captain of the Guard. If you dare (and have signed your waiver) Caer Galen Musical Chairs will be once again allow Outlanders to test their mettle against all comers. The election of the Harp of Caer Galen will also be held.

To add to the excitement of the day, it is time once again for Caer Galenites to elect the Doge! In true Caer Galen fashion, you will need to bring cash (preferably in small unmarked bills) or check to have your vote counted.

Feast details and schedule of events to follow in subsequent announcements.

Diary of a Joust (Part 2 of a series)
An insider's view of The Tournament for the Sword of Honour at the Royal Armouries Tiltyard, Easter 2007
–All photos and article ©2007 Gwen Nowrick

Everyone at the stable works diligently. Soon riders and horses are ready in plenty of time for the hunting games show. Everything runs smoothly and the show goes off without a hitch. Afterwards, Jeff, Fred, and Stacy don their armor and make some practice runs. It doesn't take long before everyone is confident, so the day ends on a high note.

Our friend Leslie arrives at about eight. We have lots of wine with dinner and get very silly. We're so lucky to have such good friends! What a wonderful, relaxing way to spend the evening before a big event.

Friday - Today is the first day of jousting! It's a madhouse at the stables getting the horses ready, but I'm trying to work fast and stay focused. We had some minor mishaps in the first session with our new caparisons and kit, so I am appointed 'head of wardrobe'. It's my job to ensure all the caparisons and other costume items are fitted properly. As usual, I groom Carla for Jeff, then see to the other horses. Carla is quite a competitor and gets excited easily, so I am determined to be cool as a cucumber and work my Zen magic on her. I practice my best yoga breathing and try to give off calm vibes as I work with her, all the time explaining to her how important it is for her to stay calm and focused, too. Maybe my vibe is working, as she's very calm. So far so good!

This first day of jousting is an opportunity to see what's been going on with everyone since the last tournament. Destrier takes the field with authority, sporting a new banner, team favors and a renewed air of solidarity. Stacy looks well pleased with his new helmet, greaves and pauldrons, and Rob's new caparison looks quite smart. Jeff's helmet sports a new crest; the black plumes reach skyward from a Crescent whose silver leaf glints in the sun. The Armouries' Andrew Balmforth appears to have gained confidence since the last tournament, and jousts with a determination and enjoyment I hadn't noticed before. Perhaps most obvious to me is the return of Toby's black armor to the field. I have to admit, I missed it at the last tournament, and its reappearance is like the return of an old friend. Toby is using his great bascinet, and more than ever looks like the Black Knyght of Mallorys' tales.

Today's first session is Leodis vs. Destrier, with The Order of the Crescent vs. the Armouries team in the second session. Jeff, Steve and Toby finish with a score of 42 out of a possible 45, to win with the highest points of the day. Everyone is cool, controlled and on target, landing some big hits along with the high scores. Jeff suffers the only injury, smashing his toe on the tilt rail during a pass with Andy Deane. Mishap notwithstanding, Jeff manages to land a good clean hit on Andy, scoring the full five points.

The weather is absolutely gorgeous - sunny, clear and about 70ish. In all, a very promising start!

Saturday - It's a smoking second day of jousting as The Order of the Crescent and Leodis battle it out to a 37- point tie. Leodis is the ancient name for the city of Leeds, and the team was formed in honor of Leeds' 800th birthday year. Led by captain Arne Koets, the Leodis team includes Fred Piraux of Belgium and William West of Leicestershire. Arne and Fred were formerly two-thirds of the Burgundian team who won the Sword of Honour in 2002 and 2005, and are amazingly talented and high-scoring jousters. This is Will's third season of jousting and he consistently turns in a solid performance. In today's session, Will lands a ferrule hit to Steve's pauldron that rocks Steve in his saddle, seriously denting the pauldron and driving the plate into Steve's shoulder. Looks as though Steve will have a purple shoulder to match Jeff's purple toe!

The Order of the Crescent is still in front with a cumulative score of 79. Destrier and Leodis are tied at 72, and the Royal Armouries team trails with 62 points. Although everyone is in top form, nothing is a sure thing and, as commentator Anna Ward says, 'there is everything to joust for'. Any horse or rider could have a bad day and lose the event, or everyone on a team could perform brilliantly and accumulate enough points to pull ahead. We'll just have to see what tomorrow brings.

The horses are better and worse than usual. Fred is riding Switch, a colored cob gelding. Switch loves to joust, and Fred is having a hard time getting him to settle down and stand prior to a run. Albert is running well for Arne, and Penny is going well for Stacy. Rob's riding a beefy cob named William, and Will is riding an equally beefy cob named Seamus. The two cobs are virtually the same size, color and temperament. I have a difficult time telling them apart, although Mark has pointed out which has the white blaze a hundred times. Oops. Steve is having a bit of a time on Magic, who has suddenly decided to be uncooperative. My Zen mind tricks seem to be working on Carla, as she is being as good as she ever has been. Toby is jousting on gorgeous Mutley. Solid, brave, fast and enthusiastic, he is also the sweetest beast to deal with. I wish more owners would train their stallions to have this kind disposition and habits, as Mutley is an absolute joy to work with. Nicky deserves huge kudos for this guy; he is a gem.

All in all, a great day any way it's judged. We'll see what happens tomorrow. Now we're off to a jouster dinner arranged by Arne.
